

List of Exhibitors for the Birdshot Day 3rd March 2012

BUS stalls	Information about Birdshot Uveitis Society Diet and Supplements Local Birdshot support: London/Southeast, Lincolnshire and Solent Looking through Birdshot Eyes with VINE (Visual Impairment North East)
BUS Fundraising	Crafts Stall with cards and crafts for sale
BUS Fundraising	Lucky Dip Stall
BUS Fundraising	Raffle Stall (£5.00 a ticket) (3 star prizes) and lucky dip (£1.00)
BUS Fundraising	Sign up for the Carrot Walk and raise money for Birdshot Research Biobank
Art and craft	Exhibition of images inspired by Birdshot eyes by “birdshotter” artist Susan Piper Art - seeing through Birdshot eyes – Art Workshop. Jenny Wright
Retinal imaging	OPTOS with their retinal imaging machine. Please bring a memory stick with you if you would like to take away copies of your retinal images.
Support	Advice about Chiropractic – Mikael Porath Petersen Support and advice from Uveitis Nurses Support and advice about drugs manned by a Pharmacist Bates method and eye massage - Lizzie May and Kevin Wooding
Eye organisations	Fight For Sight including the Carrot Walk fundraising for the Birdshot Biobank. - Julian Jackson and Dolores Conroy Royal College of Ophthalmologists Kathy Evans and Penny Jagger

Low vision

Optima Low Vision Services – Nick Collins
RNIB

Health organisations

Rare Disease UK/Genetic Alliance UK – Stephen Nutt

Lighting

Geofossils – salt lamps and crystals

Sponsor stands

Sigma Tau – Keith Williams

Friends of Moorfields Eye Hospital Isatou Nije and Jean Higgins

Moorfields Eye Charity – Deborah Royal

Scope Ophthalmics - Tom Freyne

Posters:
Please give us
your opinions and feed-back

Posters manned by Dr Moloy Dey and medical students: please visit the poster stands and express your views on the questions posed. The results of the poster surveys will be used in communication with hospitals, researchers and funding bodies.